Part-time Panel Tutor for Cognitive Psychology

The University of Cambridge's Institute of Continuing Education (ICE), based at Madingley Hall, offers a vibrant and diverse array of courses for personal enrichment and academic and professional development. Courses range from non-award-bearing courses, many of which are open-access, to innovative part-time Master of Studies (MSt) degrees.

We are currently seeking applications from suitably qualified individuals with expertise in cognitive psychology to join on our expert panel of hourly-paid, part-time sessional tutors.

Around 300 ICE panel tutors, across a variety of academic disciplines, make a vital contribution to the quality of teaching, learning and student support. In addition to delivering face-to-face and online teaching, panel tutors also conduct marking and provide feedback on assignments, helping students understand the taught material and prepare for assessments.

We are particularly seeking PhD qualified professionals with expertise in one or more of the following areas - perception, memory and language, intelligence and social cognition. ICE's FHEQ level 4 undergraduate Certificate in Cognitive Psychology can be viewed at <http://www.ice.cam.ac.uk/course/undergraduate-certificate-cognitive-psychology>.

Preferably, applicants will have experience of teaching diverse cohorts of undergraduate students in an established university setting. A recognised higher education teaching qualification would also be beneficial. A student-centred approach and an interest in supporting adult part-time students from a broad range of educational backgrounds is essential. Tutors must be available to teach at weekends and evenings on our campus at Madingley Hall, which is four miles west of Cambridge city centre.

Informal enquiries may be addressed to: ICEHRAdministration@admin.cam.ac.uk.

In the first instance please submit your professional CV (with names and details of two referees) and a supporting statement of no more than 400 words outlining your interest in this tutoring opportunity to: ICEHRAdministration@admin.cam.ac.uk.

The final closing date for applications is 18th August 2017. However, as teaching opportunities may be available from October 2017 onwards, we reserve the right to close this vacancy early and therefore, recommend that you submit your application well in advance of the closing date and as soon as possible during the recruitment process.

Panel Tutors are not employees of the University but receive a Temporary Worker Agreement for their services from the Institute before their course begins.

The University values diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity.
