

ESREA Newsletter

Number 3, Fall 2018

Dear ESREA members,

This is our third newsletter for 2018 arrives in tandem with Autumn here in Sweden. Like in many other parts around Europe, term has started which tend to imply a busy schedule for the most of us. However, I do hope that you'll have the time to take part in some of the manifold of ESREA activities organised across Europe for the academic year. We have an existing year ahead culminating with our Triennial Conference in Belgrade next September. Make sure to add the dates (19 – 22 September 2019) to your schedule already now.

Best wishes,
Robert Aman

Linköping University, Sweden

4-15 February 2019

The INTALL project warmly invites Master and doctoral students as well as practitioners from the field of adult education and lifelong learning to the 6th International Winter School on "Comparative Studies in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning" at the University of Würzburg/Germany, 04.-15.02.2019. For the first time students and practitioners from all around the world will get the opportunity to attend the study offer together. The programme is divided into two parts: In the first week of the Winter School, only Master and PhD students will be taught. They focus on international policies in adult and lifelong learning (for M.A.) and Paulo Freire's theory for international adult education (for PhD). In the second week, also practitioners will join the programme. Together, the participants work on comparative studies of selected issues in the field of adult education and lifelong learning. A cultural programme, field visits and guest lectures will frame the programme. The application deadline is the 15th of October 2018. For further information please go to:
