

SUMMER SEMINAR
'Empowering the public professions through credit'

Friday 10th June 2016
Holborn Bars, 138-142 Holborn, London EC1N 2NQ

PROGRAMME

09.30 - 10.15	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS Breakfast items are available. Tea, coffee, cold drinks, fruit and snacks are offered throughout the day.
10.15 - 10.30	Chair's welcome and overview Debbie Sawyer University of West London and Chair of SEEC
10.30 – 11.15	The four nation challenge: social work within different policy frameworks Sandy Fraser Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Health and Social Work, Open University
11.15 – 12.00	Policing and criminal justice Professor Robin Field-Smith Portsmouth University (ICJS) and Senior Associate, College of Policing
12.00 – 12.45	The power of credit in securing professional teacher status for Early Years and Teaching Assistant practitioners Ruth Miller Senior Lecturer in Work Based Learning and Accreditation, School of Health and Education, Middlesex University
12.45 – 13.30	LUNCH IN RESTAURANT
13.30 – 14.15	Credit for a flexible work based pathway in nursing Virginia Rosenfeld Principal Lecturer, University of Hertfordshire
14.15 – 15.15	Challenges and opportunities: what needs to be done Group activity led by Liz Marr Director, Centre for Inclusive and Collaborative Partnerships, Open University
15.15 – 15.30	Final remarks and evaluation
15.30	CLOSE