

The School of Education, University of Glasgow, invites you to a panel discussion:

‘Social Justice in Austere Times’

Tuesday 18 September 2018, 6-7pm (drinks from 5.15),
Sir Charles Wilson Building, 1 University Avenue, GLASGOW

Featuring Emeritus Professor Bob Lingard (University of Queensland) speaking on the global policy environment and shifting treatments of social justice amidst other priorities

Other speakers include:

- Dr Sinead Gormally, (University of Glasgow) on communities’ capacity to cope under these policy settings.
- Dr Robert Doherty, (University of Glasgow) on the local politics of educational policy.
- Dr Jacqueline Purdie, (Headteacher-in-Residence, University of Glasgow) on how schools are experiencing and navigating the contemporary policy landscape.

Attendance is free, all welcome.

