

Seminar on
'Rethinking curriculum design:
building opportunities for credit transfer/RPL and inclusivity'

Friday 25th January 2019

Friends House, 173-177 Euston Road, London NW1 2BJ

PROGRAMME

10.00 - 10.30	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
10.30 -10.35	Chair's welcome Darryll Bravenboer (Middlesex University and SEEC Deputy Chair)
10.35 - 11.20	Identifying barriers to the adoption of Certificated and Experiential Accreditation/Recognition of Prior Learning: a global perspective Jon Talbot (University of Chester)
11.20 -12.05	Making RPL accessible Dr Alison Felce (QAA)
12.05 -12.50	Widening access: skills-based courses at Strathclyde's Engineering Academy (title to be confirmed) Alan Roseweir and Gordon Flockhart (University of Strathclyde)
12.50 - 13.30	LUNCH AND NETWORKING
13.30 - 14.15	'Empty box' curriculum at the Open University: designing innovative opportunities for students and stakeholders Helen Cooke, George Curry and Clare Dunn (The Open University)
14.15 - 15.00	Using degree apprenticeships as an opportunity to build in credit transfer and RPL Viki Faulkner (University of Brighton)
15.00 - 15.15	EVALUATION followed by REFRESHMENTS
15.30 - 16.30	SEEC AGM – ALL MEMBERS WELCOME
16.30	CLOSE

How to Register: Members of SEEC and NUCCAT benefit from a reduced fee of £99. For non-members, the event fee is £249 and includes a copy of the SEEC Level Descriptors (2016). Registration is via Eventbrite at <https://bit.ly/2PWSUit> .

Further information including directions at www.seec.org.uk/events